

Jeff Clemmensen, Vice-President

Jeff Clemmensen is vice-president of Mac Frugal's Furniture and Cash Depot, with locations in St. Catharines, Welland and Hamilton. He along with his father Gary run the three largest Rent-To-Own Stores in the Niagara Peninsula. Mac Frugal's Furniture offers brand name products for the lowest monthly and weekly rental rates in the industry. Cash Depot is a money advancement service that provides cheque cashing and payday and vehicle loans.

Jeff has been involved in the family business since 1993. His final co-op placement from the University of Waterloo had him work alongside his father for four months. Jeff graduated with a degree in Information Systems, with a strong emphasis on business, computers and mathematics. Upon completing university in April of 2004, Jeff started with Mac Frugal's Furniture and Cash Depot on a full-time basis.

Jeff's scholastic accomplishments have served him well in his present role. In his OAC year, Jeff maintained a 92.5 % average. While at Grimsby Secondary School, Jeff was also presented with five awards for his academics and commitment to the community.

From an early age, Jeff took a vested interest in his father's business ventures. Almost every Saturday saw Jeff working alongside his father. Over the years, Jeff has honed his marketing and sales skills and has played a pivotal role in the company's continued growth.

Jeff resides in Welland with his wife Liz. He is a member of the Welland Kiwanis Club and is well-known across the Niagara Peninsula for helping to spearhead the donation of 300 turkeys to the needy in the community every Christmas.
